- f) Where alley gates are installed to the side or rear of the licensed property, the licence holder shall take responsibility for holding a key and making satisfactory arrangements for the occupiers' access and egress.
- g) The main escape route (usually the front door) shall be fitted with a thumb turn mortice lock, or equivalent, to five-lever security level. The lock shall comply with fire safety requirements in that it shall be operable from the inside without the use of a key.

Property inspections

16. The licence holder shall ensure that the tenant's right to quiet enjoyment of the property is respected. The licence holder shall ensure that the tenant receives at least 24 hours written notice of their intention to enter the property specifying the reason why entry is required. The only exception is when it would not be reasonably practicable to give such notice and access is required urgently, e.g. in the event of an emergency.

17. The licence holder shall ensure that inspections of the property are carried out at least every six (6) months to identify any problems relating to the condition and management of the property. The records of such inspections shall be kept for the duration of this licence. As a minimum requirement the records must contain a log of who carried out the inspection, the date and the time of inspection and any issues found and action(s) taken. The licence holder shall within seven (7) days of any demand by the council provide these records.

Dealing with rubbish

18. The Licence holder shall comply with the Council's scheme (as per guidance) which relates to the storage and disposal of household waste at the HMO pending collection. The licence holder shall ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the occupiers make arrangements for the collection of waste in accordance with these provisions and, when the property is unoccupied, or the occupiers fails to do so the licence holder adhere to these provisions themselves.*

19. The licence holder shall at the beginning of a tenancy, provide written information to the occupiers of the property indicating:

- a) which day refuse collections will take place;
- b) what type of bins to use for household and recycling waste;
- c) details of the Council's bulky waste collection service;
- d) details of the Council's missed bin collection service;
- e) the occupiers responsibility to put bins out no earlier than 4pm on the day before collection and to return refuse containers within the boundary of the property by 8am the day after the collection;

 Indicates a statutory condition as prescribed by the Housing Act 2004

f) that occupiers should make arrangements for any extra rubbish that cannot fit in the bins to be collected within seven (7) days and/or disposed of as soon as is reasonably practicable and ensure that such rubbish, where possible, is stored at the rear of the property and within the boundary of the property until collection/disposal;

20. The licence holder shall ensure that suitable and adequate provision for refuse storage and collection is provided at the house. This shall include a closable bin(s) are kept in good working order and of suitable capacity as specified by the Council.

21. The licence holder shall ensure that trade rubbish/waste is not disposed of in the domestic household bins. Any trade rubbish/waste shall be disposed of as soon as is reasonably practicable and/or within 7 days and ensure that such rubbish/waste, where practicable, is stored at the rear of the property and within the boundary of the property. The licence holder shall make adequate arrangements for the collection and disposal of commercial waste and must use a licenced waste carrier.

C. Tenancy management

22. At the beginning of a new tenancy, the licence holder must provide the occupier(s) with written information pack, including contact details, explaining how they can make a complaint about the property and the arrangements in place to deal with emergency and other repairs. The contact and telephone number details shall enable contact between 9am – 5pm Monday to Friday, and shall also include an out of hours contact number for use in emergencies. Any change in contact and/or telephone number details shall be provided to occupiers within 24 hours of the changes being made.

23. The licence holder shall record providing the occupier(s) with an information pack containing the following details:

- a) A copy of the licence to which these conditions apply.
- b) Where appropriate, copies of the current gas certificate, electrical safety report and energy performance certificates.
- c) Details of the procedures to be followed in the reporting of anti-social behaviour (ASB).
- d) Details of the occupier(s) duties and responsibilities to enable the licence holder or manager in complying with the licence conditions
- e) The information required by conditions 22, 24 and 30, shall also be included.

24. The licence holder shall notify the occupier(s) in writing how they intend to respond to the complaint including a timescales for the steps they intend to take. The licence holder shall respond to any complaint in writing as soon as is reasonably

- practicable. Copies of all correspondence relating to complaints shall be retained during the term of this licence.
25. The licence holder shall within seven (7) days of any demand by the council provide the latest information pack provided to the current tenants and/or copies of any written correspondence in regards to complaint.
26. The licence holder shall supply to the occupiers of the house a written statement of the terms on which they occupy it (e.g. a tenancy agreement or licence). This statement shall be provided to the tenant within seven (7) days of the occupancy beginning. The licence holder shall within seven (7) days of any demand by the council provide a copy of the written statement. The written statement shall be clear about tenants' responsibility for not causing anti-social behaviour (ASB) and that breach of the statement's requirements may lead to eviction.
27. The licence holder shall comply with all relevant legislation and will ensure that all legal processes are followed when requiring occupiers to cease occupation.
28. The licence holder shall demand references for new occupiers before entering into any occupancy agreement with them or allowing them to occupy the premises. Where obtained, copies of these references shall be kept for the duration of this licence and made available to the Council within seven (7) days of the Council's demand.
29. The licence holder shall ensure there is suitable and sufficient landlord buildings insurance in place for the duration of this licence.
30. Where a deposit is taken the licence holder must provide the Occupier(s) with relevant information about the deposit scheme to which it relates and any other information required under section 213 of the Housing Act 2004. The licence holder shall within seven (7) days of any demand by the council provide this information.

D. Tackling Anti-Social Behaviour

31. The licence holder shall ensure that all reasonable and practical steps are taken to prevent or reduce anti-social behavior (ASB) or criminality by the occupants of and visitors to the house. In particular;
- a) The licence holder shall put in place written ASB procedures detailing how complaints made to the licence holder will be dealt with, a copy of which shall be provided to the tenants in the information pack. The licence holder shall within seven (7) days of any demand by the council provide their written ASB procedure.
 - b) Where complaints of ASB or criminality are made to the licence holder, the licence holder shall investigate them and take action to resolve them. Copies of the complaint shall be kept together with notes arising during the course of the investigation and how the matter was resolved; and the licence holder must keep them for the duration of this licence. Where the licence holder has reason to believe that criminal activity is taking place at the property, the licence holder must ensure that the appropriate authorities are informed.

Licence conditions for houses in multiple occupation (HMO)

- c) There may be instances where anti-social behaviour (ASB) occurs more than once, but not continuously and possibly intermittently over several months. In such circumstances the licence holder shall take all as far as reasonably practicable all steps he can to ensure that it is effectively dealt with, up to and including eviction.

An ASB guide with good practice to be completed by a licence holder can be found on the Council's website at <https://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/housing/landlords-guide-to-licensing-your-rented-properties/mandatory-licensing-for-hmos/>

E. Change of Details or Circumstances

Notification

32. The licence holder shall inform the Council within 21 days of any material change in circumstances including:

- a) Change of their residential address or contact details; including when they no longer reside at the address on the licence, or where the licence holder is a business, if their business address has changed.
- b) upon the manager (where it is an agent, or employee of the licence holder,) ceasing to act in that capacity or is no longer being employed by the licence holder.
- c) any of the matters described within Appendix 3 have occurred in respect of either the licence holder and/or the manager of the house or any persons associated with them;
- d) where the licence holder is the manager of the HMO, upon them ceasing to be the manager of the property.
- e) change of manager, management arrangements or ownership;
- f) any proposed changes to the structure, layout or amenity provision of the property that would affect the licence or licence conditions.
- g) Where the Licence holder is accredited by a body approved by the Council upon termination of such accreditation

NB. Any material change of details or circumstances may require a variation or revocation of this licence. See appendix 2 for general guidance.

F. Licence Holder Training

33. Where the licence holder has not attended relevant training in the previous three (3) years, they must as a minimum attend suitable training on the law and legal requirements relating to managing privately rented housing including HMOs within 12 months of the date the licence is granted. See appendix 4 for general guidance.

G. Interpretation

Where reports, certificates, declarations or other documents are required to be produced or supplied to the Council, this shall mean sending by submitting them via the online portal or via email.

Any reference to tenant or tenancy can also be interpreted to include occupancy by licence or other form of written agreement for the purposes of these conditions.

Where electrical works / certificates are required they shall be carried out by a suitably qualified electrical contractor who should be registered / member of an approved scheme such as NICEIC, ECA, NAPIT etc. or registered to undertake electrical works in accordance with Part P of the Building Regulations (unless exempt works). Electrical contractors that are on a relevant competent person scheme can be found at www.competentperson.co.uk.

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH ANY LICENCE CONDITIONS IS AN OFFENCE

PROSECUTION / CONTRAVENTIONS CONSEQUENCES - Please note that any prosecutions or enforcement action or legal action taken against the licence holder or anyone associated with licence holder, or the management of the property, may affect the licence holders 'fit and proper' status. The Council can revoke or vary the licence at any time, giving proper statutory notice.

PENALTY FOR BREACH OF LICENCE CONDITIONS - Failure to comply with any of the above licence conditions may result in similar enforcement action as described above and/or prosecution. The fine for a breach of licence condition is now UNLIMITED for each offence at prosecution or a Civil Penalty Notice could be served for up to £30,000 for each breach.

LIMITATIONS OF THE LICENCE

LICENCE TRANSFER - This licence can NOT be transferred to another person or organisation or property.

REGISTERED COMPANIES - If the licence holder is a registered company and it is dissolved while the licence is in force, the licence ceases to be in force on the date of dissolution.

PROPERTY CONDITION - This property licence is NOT proof or evidence that the house is safe and free from hazards and defects. The property licence does not prevent criminal or civil legal action being taken against the licence holder, or anyone else with an interest in the property, if any hazards or nuisances are found or any other problems discovered in relation to the condition of the property.

BUILDING CONTROL - This property licence does NOT grant any Building Control (Development Control) approvals, consent or permissions, retrospectively or otherwise. This property licence does not offer any protection or excuse against any enforcement action taken by the Building Control (Development Control) Department.

PLANNING PERMISSIONS - This property licence does NOT grant, any planning approvals, consents or permissions under the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 or any related planning legislation,

Licence conditions for houses in multiple occupation (HMO)

 Indicates a statutory condition as prescribed by the Housing Act 2004

retrospectively or otherwise. You should check the Council's website to ensure the correct planning permissions are in place. This property licence does not offer any protection or excuse against any enforcement action taken by the Development Control Department. If you are unclear on the matters outlined above you should seek professional planning advice. www.nottinghamCity.gov.uk/planning-and-building-control/planning-applications/do-i-need-planning-permission/

VARIATION - No changes may be made to the use, layout or maximum occupancy level of the property without the Council's prior written consent. Where the licence holder or a relevant person applies to vary a licence they should do so at the earliest opportunity. The original licence stays in force until the variation is determined and comes into effect. A person making unauthorised changes may be liable to prosecution or other forms of enforcement action.

LEASEHOLD AGREEMENTS – It is your responsibility to check the terms of any lease that you hold to ensure that operating the property as a House in Multiple Occupation does not breach the terms of your lease.

PLEASE NOTE - It is your responsibility to ensure that you have any other necessary permissions or consents in place to enable the property to be used as a house in multiple occupation. The granting of a licence does not override any other private or public law provisions in this respect.

APPENDIX 2 GUIDANCE INFORMATION

These do not form part of the licence conditions, but you may still be under an obligation to comply with them.

Consumer Rights & Unfair Practices

The Office of Fair Trading's (OFT) guidance on unfair contracts when conducting their business, drawing up tenancies, contracts or the service of notices on tenants and/or agents. The Licence Holder must act in good faith and must not conduct actions which would be considered a misleading action or omission. Full information should be supplied to any prospective tenant including details of this licence.

Further advice can be found here,

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/unfair-contract-terms-cma37>

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/unfair-terms-in-tenancy-agreements--2>

Gas Safety

If gas is supplied to the house the licence holder shall ensure the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 (or any Regulations which subsequently replace these) are complied with. Details of competent Gas Safe engineers can be found at www.gassaferegister.co.uk

Electrical Safety

The licence holder shall ensure that the Electrical Equipment (Safety) Regulations 1994 (or any Regulations which subsequently replace these) are complied with. Certificates must be in the format recommended in the British Standards. All electrical checks, works and certification must be carried out by a competent person being a suitably qualified electrical contractor who should be registered / member of an approved scheme such as NICEIC, ECA, NAPIT etc. or registered to undertake electrical works in accordance with Part P of the Building Regulations (unless exempt works).

Smoke Alarms, Fire Detection Systems & Emergency Escape Lighting

Depending on the size, layout and occupancy of the property the licence holder may need to go over and above the legal minimum standards to adequately protect the tenants from fire and may also need to undertake a risk assessment. When doing this the licence holder should have regard to the current Building Regulations; and the LACORS Fire Safety Guide. The LACORS Fire Safety guidance is available at www.nottinghamCity.gov.uk/environmental-health-and-safer-housing/private-sector-housing/

Competent Person

A competent person is someone who has sufficient training and experience or knowledge and other qualities that allow them to assist you properly. The level of competence required will depend on the complexity of the situation and the particular help you need.

 Indicates a statutory condition as prescribed by the Housing Act 2004

www.competentperson.co.uk

Furniture Safety

The licence holder shall ensure that the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire Safety) Regulations 1988 (or any Regulations which subsequently replace these) in respect of any upholstered furniture supplied by them, including chairs, sofas, beds, upholstered head boards, mattresses, cushions, seat pads, pillows and upholstered garden furniture etc. are complied with.

Safety and Security of Property

It is recommended that licence holders work towards improving the safety and security of their property by as a minimum complying with the Security and Standards of HMO and Rented Properties guide issued jointly by Nottinghamshire Police and Nottingham City Council, available at www.nottinghamCity.gov.uk/HMO.

Property Management

More information on dealing with waste can be found at www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/bin-and-rubbish-collections/. Licence holders may find it useful to include this link in the documentation provided to occupiers under condition 18.

Training

The training requirement in conditions 33 is a minimum requirement and depending on the level of responsibility and complexity of properties involved the licence holder should consider undertaking further relevant training in line with the extent of their liabilities.

Deposits

The licence holder shall ensure that any deposit taken as security for a tenancy is protected as appropriate by placing it in an approved tenancy deposit scheme. The tenant must be given the prescribed information about the scheme being used in a specified time.

Right to rent

Only people with permission or a right to be in the UK have a right to rent property. As a landlord, you have a responsibility to restrict illegal immigrants accessing the private rented sector. If you are found letting to someone who does not have the right to be in the UK, and you cannot show that you have made right to rent checks, then you could face a penalty of £3000. For more information visit www.gov.uk/check-tenant-right-to-rent-documents

Energy Performance Certificates (EPCs)

Licence holders shall ensure they comply with relevant legislation, ensuring tenants have sight of a current EPC for the property at the appropriate time. From 1st April 2018 domestic properties in England and Wales must have an EPC certificate with a minimum E rating for energy efficiency.

Redress scheme

Where the licence holder is also a letting agent or property manager they shall be a member of a relevant property redress scheme. More information is available at www.gov.uk/government/publications/lettings-agents-and-property-managers-redress-schemes

Changing Use (converting family housing to a HMO)

Licence holders proposing to convert properties from single occupancy into HMOs should be aware that planning permission is required. More information is available at www.nottinghamCity.gov.uk/planning-and-building-control/planning-applications/do-i-need-planning-permission/

To Let boards

In Nottingham there are controls on to let boards in certain parts of the City. More information is available at www.nottinghamCity.gov.uk/planning-and-building-control/planning-applications/do-i-need-planning-permission/controls-on-to-let-ad-boards/

Electoral Registration

If you live in Nottingham City, access to certain services may be affected if you are not on the electoral register. It is a legal requirement to be on the electoral register. For more information please visit www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/about-the-council/voting-elections/register-to-vote/

Notes: These notes are intended as general information to the recipient(s) of this licence. The notes are not intended to be definitive and the recipient should refer to the full version of the Housing Act 2004.

Right to appeal against refusal or grant of licence

Housing Act 2004: Schedule 5, Part 3, Paragraph 31(1)

Paragraph 31

(1) The applicant or any relevant person may appeal to [the appropriate tribunal] against a decision by the local housing authority on an application for a licence—

- (a) to refuse to grant the licence, or
- (b) to grant the licence.

(2) An appeal under sub-paragraph (1)(b) may, in particular, relate to any of the terms of the licence.

Time limits for appeals

Paragraph 33

(1) Any appeal under paragraph 31 against a decision to grant, or (as the case may be) to refuse to grant, a licence must be made within the period of 28 days beginning with the date specified in the notice under paragraph 7 or 8 as the date on which the decision was made.

(2) Any appeal under paragraph 32 against a decision to vary or revoke, or (as the case may be) to refuse to vary or revoke, a licence must be made within the period of 28 days beginning with the date specified in the notice under paragraph 16, 21, 24 or 28 as the date on which the decision was made.

(3) [The appropriate tribunal] may allow an appeal to be made to it after the end of the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) or (2) if it is satisfied that there is a good reason for the failure to appeal before the end of that period (and for any delay since then in applying for permission to appeal out of time).

Powers of tribunal hearing appeal

Paragraph 34

(1) This paragraph applies to appeals to [the appropriate tribunal] under paragraph 31 or 32.

(2) An appeal—

- (a) is to be by way of a re-hearing, but
- (b) may be determined having regard to matters of which the authority were unaware.

(3) The tribunal may confirm, reverse or vary the decision of the local housing authority.

(4) On an appeal under paragraph 31 the tribunal may direct the authority to grant a licence to the applicant for the licence on such terms as the tribunal may direct.

Grant or refusal of licence

Section 64

(1) Where an application in respect of an HMO is made to the local housing authority under section 63, the authority must either—

- (a) grant a licence in accordance with subsection (2), or
- (b) refuse to grant a licence.

(2) If the authority are satisfied as to the matters mentioned in subsection (3), they may grant a licence either—

- (a) to the applicant, or
- (b) to some other person, if both he and the applicant agree.

(3) The matters are—

(a) that the house is reasonably suitable for occupation by not more than the maximum number of households or persons mentioned in subsection (4) or that it can be made so suitable by the imposition of conditions under section 67;

[(aa) that no banning order under section 16 of the Housing and Planning Act 2016 is in force against a person who—

- (i) owns an estate or interest in the house or part of it, and
- (ii) is a lessor or licensor of the house or part;]

(b) that the proposed licence holder—

- (i) is a fit and proper person to be the licence holder, and
- (ii) is, out of all the persons reasonably available to be the licence holder in respect of the house, the most appropriate person to be the licence holder;

(c) that the proposed manager of the house is either—

- (i) the person having control of the house, or
- (ii) a person who is an agent or employee of the person having control of the house;

(d) that the proposed manager of the house is a fit and proper person to be the manager of the house; and

(e) that the proposed management arrangements for the house are otherwise satisfactory.

(4) The maximum number of households or persons referred to in subsection (3)(a) is—

- (a) the maximum number specified in the application, or
- (b) some other maximum number decided by the authority.

(5) Sections 65 and 66 apply for the purposes of this section.

Test as to suitability for multiple occupation

Section 65

- (1) The local housing authority cannot be satisfied for the purposes of section 64(3)(a) that the house is reasonably suitable for occupation by a particular maximum number of households or persons if they consider that it fails to meet prescribed standards for occupation by that number of households or persons.
- (2) But the authority may decide that the house is not reasonably suitable for occupation by a particular maximum number of households or persons even if it does meet prescribed standards for occupation by that number of households or persons.
- (3) In this section “prescribed standards” means standards prescribed by regulations made by the appropriate national authority.
- (4) The standards that may be so prescribed include –
 - (a) standards as to the number, type and quality or –
 - (i) bathrooms, toilets, wash-basins and showers.
 - (ii) areas for food storage, preparation and cooking, and
 - (iii) laundry facilities.which should be available in particular circumstances; and
 - (b) standards as to the number, type and quality of other facilities or equipment which should be available in particular circumstances.

Tests for fitness etc. and satisfactory management arrangements

Section 66

- (1) In deciding for the purposes of section 64(3)(b) or (d) whether a person (“P”) is a fit and proper person to be the licence holder or (as the case may be) the manager of the house, the local housing authority must have regard (among other things) to any evidence within subsection (2) or (3).
- (2) Evidence is within this subsection if it shows that P has—
 - (a) committed any offence involving fraud or other dishonesty, or violence or drugs, or any offence listed in Schedule 3 to the Sexual Offences Act 2003 (c. 42) (offences attracting notification requirements);
 - (b) practised unlawful discrimination on grounds of sex, colour, race, ethnic or national origins or disability in, or in connection with, the carrying on of any business;
 - (c) contravened any provision of the law relating to housing or of landlord and tenant law; or
 - (d) acted otherwise than in accordance with any applicable code of practice approved under section 233.
- (3) Evidence is within this subsection if—
 - (a) it shows that any person associated or formerly associated with P (whether on a personal, work or other basis) has done any of the things set out in subsection (2)(a) to (d), and
 - (b) it appears to the authority that the evidence is relevant to the question whether P is a fit and proper person to be the licence holder or (as the case may be) the manager of the house.

[(3C) A person is not a fit and proper person for the purposes of section 64(3)(b) or (d) if a banning order under section 16 of the Housing and Planning Act 2016 is in force against the person.]
- (4) For the purposes of section 64(3)(b) the local housing authority must assume, unless the contrary is shown, that the person having control of the house is a more appropriate person to be the licence holder than a person not having control of it.
- (5) In deciding for the purposes of section 64(3)(e) whether the proposed management arrangements for the house are otherwise satisfactory, the local housing authority must have regard (among other things) to the considerations mentioned in subsection (6).
- (6) The considerations are—
 - (a) whether any person proposed to be involved in the management of the house has a sufficient level of competence to be so involved;
 - (b) whether any person proposed to be involved in the management of the house (other than the manager) is a fit and proper person to be so involved; and
 - (c) whether any proposed management structures and funding arrangements are suitable.
- (7) Any reference in section 64(3)(c)(i) or (ii) or subsection (4) above to a person having control of the house, or to being a person of any other description, includes a reference to a person who is proposing to have control of the house, or (as the case may be) to be a person of that description, at the time when the licence would come into force.
